INAGONY WITH ECZEMA
Whole Body a Mass of Raw, Bleeding, Torturing Ulcers—Hoped Death Would End Fearful Suffering.

IN DESPAIR: CURED BY CUTICURA
"Terrible eczema broke out on my head and kept spreading until it covered my whole body. I was almost a solid mass of sores and looked more like a piece of raw beef than a human being. The pain and agony seemed more than I could bear. My clothes would stick to the raw and bleeding flesh, making me cry out from the pain. I did not think I could live and wanted death to end my fearful suffering. But I was blessed with relief I experienced after applying CUTICURA. It cooled the bleeding and itching flesh and brought me real sleep. In a short time I was completely cured by the CUTICURA Remedies. Mrs. William Went, 135 Thos. St., Newark, N. J., Sept. 29, 1908."

OLD-TIME NAPKINS.
They May Find Their Way to the Wesleyan Museum.

John Welch whose home is on Spring street has had a dozen napkins that possess much historical interest to Wesleyan, says the Middlesex Press. One of these napkins is marked in ink that is still legible "William R. Fiske, 1825." William R. Fiske was the first president of Wesleyan college and after his death and when his effects were disposed of Mr. Welch came into possession of the napkins. They may eventually find their way into the Wesleyan museum. There has been a request for one or more of them from the Middlesex County Historical society.

New Haven Man's Large Estate.
The will of Pierre N. Welsh, who was president of the First National bank of New Haven, was filed for probate Monday. He left an estate of $350,000, which, with the exception of $50,000 to each of his five sons, is left to the widow, Mrs. Emma H. Welsh.

BREED THEATER.
The Girl Scout, Sensational Story of the Boer War.

Packed houses have greeted the great picture entitled Girl Scout, which is the story of the Boer war, produced under the title of The Girl Scout, as his leading feature until Thursday. The picture is a brilliant and interesting story of the war, with the various incidents are reproduced with utmost fidelity, making it a brilliant and interesting picture that meets with the greatest success wherever shown.
An entire new reel of pictures goes on exhibition today and the programme is bound to be one of special merit.
Miss Wolcott continues to delight all with her cultivated voice and captivating stage presence, singing Hawley's beautiful and masterly song, I Wait for Thee.

THE AUDITORIUM.
The programme at the Auditorium this week goes to swell the large list of successes already to the credit of the most popular amusement center in the city. The "standing room only" sign was out early Monday night and by the time the first performance was over there was not an unoccupied seat in the house, and many patients waiting for admittance to the second show.

One of the features of the bill was the true to nature sketch of Stoughton and May in The Soap Peddler. Both men handle their parts in a convincing manner, weaving pathos and comedy together, the whole making a true story of everyday life. A splendidly strong team that would be hard to beat is the Reading Sisters. They look like, sing well and dance better. A pleasing feature of this act is the light-like rapidity with which they make their various changes of costume. James A. Dunn, with his wonderful vocal imitations, was an instant hit. His manner of delivering the imitations with a vein of light comedy caused a most pleasing impression. Just Kids is what they call Wilbur and Harrington, but they manage to get a lot of good work in under their simple title. Mr. Harrington is a jumper and acrobat of much ability, the great and finished manner of comedy, which he rendered with infinite feeling and expression.
The motion pictures were as usual the best. The management wisely stated that all their films are carefully censored before exhibition and nothing that would offend the most fastidious is ever shown, such as various exhibitions of brutality, etc. The feature picture for Wednesday is Lost in Siberia.

Episcopal School Blessed.
The new buildings of the Kent school were blessed by Right Rev. Bishop C. E. Brewster of the Connecticut diocese Sunday afternoon and a reception followed to the guests who had come there for the service.
The school is in charge of the Order of the Holy Cross, an Episcopal brotherhood founded about 25 years ago by Father Huntington, and is under the direct supervision of Fathers O'Malley and L. L. Chapman.

Don't Do This—
You don't want to spend all of your time in a hot, stuffy kitchen.

The Mother's Oats Free Fireless Cooker brings you freedom from the tyranny of the stove. As soon as your food reaches the boiling point you take it off the fire and put it in the Fireless Cooker. You can forget all about dinner until your appetite reminds you that you want it.

We give the Mother's Oats Fireless Cooker away free to users of Mother's Cereals—the best made of all foods. They are:

Mother's Oats (regular and family sizes)
Mother's Corn Meal (white or yellow)
Mother's Wheat Hearts (the cream of the wheat)
Mother's Hominy Grits
Mother's Corn Flakes (toasted)

Mother's Coarse Pearl Hominy
Mother's Old Fashioned Steel Cut Oatmeal
Mother's Old Fashioned Graham Flour

Ask your grocer. If he doesn't keep Mother's Cereals write us giving his name and yours and we will send you free a useful souvenir.
